Dear Navo Beginner Band Family-

I hope you enjoyed your extra hour of sleep this weekend!

Beginner Band Students are continuing to work on the fundamentals of their instruments and their Winter Concert music! Don't forget that you can always check your child's band binder to see their current objective sheet. This lays out the things students will be learning this nine weeks and as we initial those objectives, you'll see what students have mastered and what things they still need to work on.

There are some students that have asked me if I'm available for extra help before or after school. The answer is YES! If students would like to come in for extra help on their instrument, I'm available. Here are the days I'm available: 7:45am on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, and 3:45 on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. Please have them let me know in advance to make sure I don't have a last minute meeting or something on those days. Mr. Hudson is available for his brass students too. Students can make arrangements with him or you can send him an email if interested in some extra help!

We love our Navo Teachers/Staff!!! So, the fine arts groups at Navo have decided to make every Monday until our Winter break a little special for all the teachers/staff on our campus. The band kiddos are taking two of the Mondays to help treat our teachers/staff special. The first will be next Monday (November 12) and we'd like to have some breakfast food (muffins, donuts, fruit, kolaches, etc...). I'll create a sign-up genius and send it out if you'd like to help treat our teachers at Navo to a little yummy Monday treat! (Our second Monday will be the Monday after our Winter Concert and we'll do Holiday Cookies/Treats and Milk...fun fun!!!)

Lastly, our Braswell Band has their last home game and it's senior night this Friday! Come check out their "Lotus" performance one last time and celebrate the senior class!!!

I hope you have a wonderful week!
