Weekly Navo Band Newsletter for Beginner Band:

I hope everyone has had a wonderful week off! We have about 3 weeks left before the end of the semester...time has just flown by. Please take note of the upcoming dates for our Beginner Band. We have our rehearsals and concert coming up soon. The concert will take place at Braswell HS in the Auditorium. This is a concert that students should dress up for...Sunday/Holiday best please (no jeans/shorts).

Please encourage students to bring instruments home each day and practice. Have them play their music for you and show you what they are learning each day in class.

Our 7th/8th grade band students will be decking the band hall this week for the holidays! We will have a tree (with a friendly little competition between the fine arts classes as far as tree decoration). We are helping out our NJHS students with a Toys for Tots drive. If you could bring an unwrapped toy to place under our tree for children in need, that would be great! Students are also welcome to donate an ornament for the band hall tree ...homemade ornaments welcome!!! Get crafty kids!!! (this is not required...just having fun and spreading holiday cheer).

As always...check out our band website for info, past newsletters, calendar, resources, etc. Like us on facebook and follow us on twitter (twitter is NEW!):
