Students involved in the auditions will receive a handout via a separate email on Tuesday. They will receive their audition window time in class tomorrow along with the paper copy of the handout that will be emailed.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We need volunteers for room monitors for All-District Auditions if you're able. (You don't have to be an Honors Band parent to volunteer...anyone available would be great)! We, as a district, cannot run this contest without the support of our parent volunteers. For District Band auditions on the 14th, here is a link for the volunteer sign-up. There are a couple shifts available, only of couple hours each. Being a room monitor is a simple process but it's SO important, and you get to directly contribute to making the day a positive experience for the students. Thank you for considering.

Advanced Band Notes

Honors Band - students should be practicing scales, all-district music, and class/band music. All-District is this Saturday. This is a required audition for our varsity band students - Students will be receiving their audition time tomorrow along with a handout.

SECTIONALS THIS WEEK for HONORS Band will be normal times except for these groups: Clarinets will be TUESDAY AM, Oboes will be Wednesday PM, and Trombone/Euphonium can come either Tuesday or Wednesday PM (or both if they desire).

Symphonic Band - students should be practicing their scales and band music.

Week 4 finishers of our September Scale Challenge will be posted next week. Mrs. Anderson was out many days with her sick child, so the picture did not get taken.

Beginner Band Notes

We are beginning our 2nd quarter of the school year and you'll hear tremendous growth this quarter. Students should be bringing their instruments home everyday to practice what they are learning in class. We expect some practice time every night. Also...please make sure your woodwind and brass beginner has Tradition of Excellence Book 1 for their instrument. Most students already have this, but if not, you can easily find on Amazon! Don't hesitate to reach out if you have questions!
