Parents and Students -

I was going to take off that snowflake above but then I saw the forecast for this week and thought that I'd better leave it on for another week! Haha! There are no FULL band rehearsals this week for our advanced bands, which means we are back to our sectional schedule this week...See page 2 for this schedule.

This week we are looking forward to our annual "Percussion Bash". All percussion students will be performing Saturday and it will be AWESOME!! Everyone is invited, so come support our Braswell Zone Percussion students! 7pm on Saturday!!!

Beginner Band Info

The beginner band students should be continuing to practice their tetrachords and scales as we are working on that in class. They also have a method book that they are working out of as well. We will be getting our spring concert music very soon!

Our beginner percussion are performing on Feb. 26th, working on that music as well. Mr. Miller sent an email about the Percussion concert day and dress rehearsal.

Advanced Band Info

Great job to our Symphonic Band and Honors Band at UIL. We got some great feedback from the "judge" for stage and sightreading. This will help prepare us for our actual UIL performance coming up in 2 weeks.

Mr. Russell (assistant director of fine arts for DISD) will be giving us a clinic in class TOMORROW!!! Bring those instruments to school and get ready to learn!

Sectionals are back to normal this week. See the schedule on page 2.

Percussion Concert on Saturday!!!! Mr. Miller will send all of the details!
