Hello Navo Band Family!

It's UIL week for our advanced bands and the rescheduled Noodles and Notes concert on Monday for our Jazz Ensemble! Our students have worked really hard preparing their music for both events! Please check your email for the UIL itineraries and if you still need to purchase jazz dinner tickets, the info is on Page 2 of this newsletter.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU for the paper donations!

We so appreciate it!

Also...if you've got any carpet remnants remaining from a home improvement project, we'd love to take that off your hands for you. We'd like to line our shelves that will hold our percussion equipment.

Beginner Band Info

The beginner students are continuing work on their scales, rhythm rockers, lines from their method book, and music for our festival. We have begun a big scale pass-off unit that will last through May. Beginners...please make sure you are keeping up with your grades in all of your classes. Remember, you can't attend Main Event with us unless you pass all of your classes on your upcoming report card!

Advanced Band Info

It's UIL week! On Tuesday, Symphonic Band needs to show up to school dressed in their concert black and Honors Band needs to have it with them to change into later. I've sent itineraries home with details. Honors Band will have their rescheduled full band rehearsal Monday afterschool from 3:45-4:45pm. Parents...remember you are always welcome to attend UIL. We'd love to have you there!

Trinity Music Festival (Main Event) and Pride of Texas Festival (Pinstack)
