4 NOVEMBER 2018

Dear Navo Band Family-

I hope you enjoyed your extra hour last night! Morning sectionals might feel a little easier this week!!!

We have added an event on our band calendar: Thursday, November 15th is the Panther Pride Teacher vs. Student Basketball game. They have a pep rally before the game and we need the band to play. Once they have played, students may stay for the game. We did this last year and it was a lot of fun!

We love our Navo Teachers/Staff!!! So, the fine arts groups at Navo have decided to make every Monday until our Winter break a little special for all the teachers/staff on our campus. The band kiddos are taking two of the Mondays to treat our teachers special. The first will be next Monday (November 12) and we'd like to have some breakfast food (muffins, donuts, fruit, kolaches, etc...). I'll create a sign-up genius and send it out if you'd like to help treat our teachers at Navo to a little yummy Monday treat! (Our next will be the Monday after our Winter Concert and we'll do Holiday Cookies/Treats and Milk...fun fun!!!)

If your child is doing the 7th grade select band this week, I'll send home a flyer tomorrow (as well as email) and they will get their audition window/time in class tomorrow.

Braswell Band has their last home game and it's senior night this Friday! Come check out their "Lotus" performance one last time and celebrate the senior class!!!

This is just a reminder again to start thinking ahead to our December concert and the uniform that is required. All students in Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble are required to wear their concert black attire. This is an all black dressy outfit. Click HERE to see our page on our concert black attire and what is and isn't acceptable. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me. The key is ALL BLACK...no pinstripes, no different color collars, no embellishments, etc. This outfit will be worn at our Winter Concert (December), Pre-UIL and UIL (February, March), and our Spring Concert (May).

Lastly, we posted some cute pictures from the NMS/RMS football game performance last week on our band facebook page! We had a great time...Check it out! :)

Have a great week!!!
