Weekly Navo Band Newsletter for Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble:

Over 1300 band students auditioned Thursday evening and all day Saturday for a spot in the TMEA Region 2 All-Region Bands. Two students will represent Navo this year...Amelia Phillips, 1st chair Flute, All-Region Symphonic Band and Serenity Williams, 8th chair Flute, All-Region Concert Band. Congrats to these two young ladies for their hard work and dedication!!! Way to go! We still have our 7th grade auditions coming up on November 8th for our Wind Ensemble students involved. I'll send more info later this week.

This is just a reminder to send in band fee/instrument fee payments (if you did not pay the full amount in September).

One of our private teachers is having their recital next week and I wanted to share: Kayla Abel on Clarinet will be playing a recital on November 10th at 5pm at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Denton.

***This Tuesday (October 31) is Navo Spirit Day...wear your band t-shirt/jeans and we'll get our yearbook class pictures done while we are all dressed in our shirts! It is also a pep rally day! ☺

Add this date on your calendar for a fun Holiday Concert! It's the 4th Annual North Texas Tuba Christmas – December 23rd 12:00pm at the University of North Texas Library Mall. We'd love for our Tuba and Euphonium students to participate! For more information please contact our private teacher, Casey Flanbaum...see band website for her contact info. Also, check out the website...www.tubachristmas.com
