Weekly Navo Band Newsletter for Beginner Band:

I hope everyone enjoyed our three-day weekend!

Please refer to the 2nd and 3rd page of this newsletter for the handout that was given to students on Friday. It is our Instrument Poster Project that will be due on Monday, January 22nd. We are excited that the students will be learning some new things about their instruments and sharing those with our 5th graders. We will be sending some of the posters over to our elementary feeder schools so the music teachers can showcase them in their classroom. The 3rd page of this newsletter shows some great examples of the posters. Don't hesitate to ask questions and have fun with this!!! I can't wait to see the creativity of our students!

Instrument Poster Project

For a major summative grade this 9 weeks, each student will create a poster that showcases how awesome your instrument is! You should put many pictures and fun facts about your instrument on the poster:

- ♪ Name of the instrument
- ♪ Pictures of the instrument, with yourself included
- ♪ Fun facts about the history of your instrument
- ♪ Pop culture usage of your instrument
- ♪ Why you like playing your instrument
- ♪ Fun musical decorations

We will hang these up for the 5th graders to see, so they will be excited about playing your instrument next year! From each band class, we will choose a winner for the most creative/decorative/neatest poster. The winners will receive a special prize after the contest is over.

The poster will be due Monday, January 22nd, and will be graded on originality, neatness, content, and creativity. Ask any and all questions, and have fun with this!!!!
