Dear Parents and Students -

Wonderful job at our spring concert on Monday!!! It was so great to see everyone together and supporting our young musicians! This week we have our solo/ensemble contest at Navo on Tuesday afternoon/evening. Mr. Hudson will be finalizing the schedule today and sending that out tomorrow morning. This should be something the students dress up and look nice for. If they can't make it home to dress up, band t-shirt and jeans will be allowed.

Beginner Band Info

Beginner Band students have been assigned a solo and/or ensemble for our contest on Tuesday. They could use some practice running through their performance. You should ask to hear their solo (or ensemble) before Tuesday! Wednesday and Thursday in class, I'll be listening to their WTAMU music for a final grade and also finishing up their scale and tetrachord pass-offs. Mrs. Anderson's reward party for that pass-off is Friday during class! So far we have had 7 students completely finish the chart and currently the saxophone class is winning the class portion of the competition.

Advanced Band Info

Advanced Band students have been assigned an ensemble for our Solo/Ensemble contest and a few students are also performing a solo. Mr. Hudson will be sending out that schedule tomorrow. Wednesday and Thursday I'll be finishing up listening to our 7th graders on their WTAMU music and then we'll be passing out some music to sight-read for next fall! Reminder to our 8th grade students about B-Coming on Monday evening and Visual camp on Friday/Saturday!
