11 NOVEMBER 2018

Dear Navo Band Family-

It's the last week of school before Thanksgiving break! I can't believe how fast the year is going. Last week in Flower Mound we had our 7th grade Select Band auditions. These 8 students made a place in that band:

- 2nd Chair Flute - Alexandra Callahan
- 12th Chair Flute - Sebastian Castillo
- 6th Chair Clarinet - Kyndall Harris
- 5th Chair Alto Sax - Joshua Comport
- 2nd Chair Bari Sax - Reymundo Izaguirre
- 7th Chair French Horn - Bella Bollack
- 4th Chair Trumpet - Nathan Contreras
- 10th Chair Trumpet - Sadie Peterson

Congrats to these students and all who auditioned! We are proud of you!!! These students will be performing a concert on January 19th! More info to come...

Thursday, November 15th is the Panther Pride Teacher vs. Student Basketball game. There is a pep rally happening before the game begins. We need the band students to play some songs as people are entering the gym and one song during the pep rally. Once the pep rally is over, students are either free to leave or to stay for the game. I will send a separate email with times as soon as the planning meeting tomorrow is over. I'll have more details then. Band T-shirt and jeans are needed for this. We played last year and it was a lot of fun!

Thank you in advance for signing up for our donut sign-up for the teachers and staff of Navo. We love our Navo staff and want to show them our appreciation. There is no better way than through caffeine and sugar, right??? I'll have the coffee/creamers tomorrow, students can bring what they signed up for when the building opens at 7:45am. I'll have some of our band leaders setting this up for the teachers in the teacher lounge and then I'll send the email to invite them down to enjoy! I love surprises! Thanks again for your help in making this Monday yummy for our teachers. Here is the link to signup if you missed it last week. Still plenty of things to sign-up for:

Sectionals will run as normal this week except Symphonic Band sectionals on Friday afternoon (11/16) will be canceled. All other sectionals will happen on normal days and times this week.

We are just a few weeks away from our Winter Concert...This is just a reminder again to start thinking ahead to that concert and the uniform that is required. All students in Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble are required to wear their concert black attire. This is an all black dressy outfit. Click HERE to see our page on our concert black attire and what is and isn't acceptable. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me. The key is ALL BLACK...no pinstripes, no different color collars, no embellishments, etc. This outfit will be worn at our Winter Concert (December), Pre-UIL and UIL (February, March), and our Spring Concert (May).

Lastly, this is my last weekly newsletter until after Thanksgiving. I just want to say how thankful I am for all of you parents and students who make up this great band program. I am so blessed to teach your children each day! Have a wonderful time with family and friends next week!!!

Have a great week!!!
